

Julie Duggan

Welcome message

For over, 30 years Julie Duggan has been teaching Creative and Musical Arts.

Throughout the years her focus has been to encourage growth as an artist in all her students. Julie teaches Painting, Stained Glass, Clawhammer Banjo, Drawing, Pottery and Sculpture. Over the years her students as her have earned many awards and recognitions in local scholastic art shows as well as in galleries, museums and publications. She has had personally over 50 exhibitions in museums and galleries throughout the North East. Her art work is in the permanent collections of private homes and historical societies. Julie has served as Fine Arts Department Chair, Art Club Mentor, participated in Scholastic Art groups, Chess Club coach, functioned as a faculty member at Banjo Camp North and has worked as an adjunct for the Capitol District Art Center.

Professional Experience

1994- current

Fine Arts Departement

Cambridge NY

Cambridge Central School

[Job Title]

- Sculpture
- Drawing & Painting
- Stained Glass
Pottery

Education/Degrees

1991 1992

Rochester Institute of Technology

[Degree Obtained]

- Master In the Science of Teaching

Education/Degrees

1988 1991

Rochester Institute of Technology

[Degree Obtained]

- Bachelor of Fine Arts

Education/Degrees
