

Which Database Should I Use?

Databases are information sites that the school provides free to students and teachers. They are ad-free, have material appropriate for students, and have been checked over by experts, so they are usually better than Google for student learning and research.

Go to Cambridge Elementary Library website
www.cambridgecsd.org/domain/58

Click on:

Username: ces Password: (ask Mrs. Cummings)

Databases for Younger Students:

BrainPop Jr. (Grades K-3)

Educational cartoons with quizzes

Britannica School (Grades K-12)

Articles in three different reading levels

PebbleGo (Grades K-3)

Simple articles and videos; Animals, Biographies, Earth/Space, Social Studies

Scholastic Go (Grades 2 and up)

Articles on a variety of topics

Tumblebooks (Grades PreK-6)

Animated picture books, videos, graphic novels, and chapter books

E-Books for Kids

- Gale EBooks (K-6)
- PebbleGo Read More Books (K-3)
 - Look for purple Read More tab in Animals and Science articles
- Rosen EPointPlus EBooks (K-6)
- Rosen Interactive Ebooks (K-6)
- TrueFlix (3-6)
- Tumblebooks (PreK-6)
- WorldBook EBook (3-6)

Which Database Should I Use?

Go to Cambridge Elementary Library website
www.cambridgecsd.org/domain/58

Click on:

Username: ces Password: (ask Mrs. Cummings)

Databases for Older Students:

BrainPop (Grades 4 and up)

Educational cartoons with quizzes

Britannica School (Grades K-12)

Encyclopedia articles presented in three different reading levels

Digital Literacy (Grades 6-12)

Knowledge and skills to safely navigate digital world

Elementary Gale in Context (Grades 3-5)

E-books, magazine articles, animals, famous people, history, and science

Lincoln Library: FactCite (Grades 3-12)

Articles on biographies, sports champions, mythology, and American history

Middle School Gale in Context (Grades 6-8)

Articles on a variety of topics

Power Knowledge (Grades 3-6)

Science information, articles, videos, and activities

Scholastic Go (Grades 2 and up)

Encyclopedia articles on a variety of topics

TeachingBooks (Grades 4 and up)

Resources related to authors and books

Tumblebooks (Grades PreK-6)

Animated picture books, videos, graphic novels, and chapter books